Ballroom

Presented by Assistance League® of Inland North County

2010 Ticket Holder's Favorite, Jill Reilly, and Cute Cakes staff in front of her award winning mint chocolate cake.

Do you remember Death by Chocolate from last year? We are once more bringing you an evening to remember. After pastas and salad, indulge yourselves in scrumptious desserts made by some of the best pastry chefs and chocolatiers in the area.

Just one of the talented chefs and chocolatiers you will meet:

Albert Cruz is the executive chef at Pala Casino Spa & Resort, an AAA Four-Diamond resort and casino in Northern San Diego County. He has received Best Dessert awards from the Best of Downtown Los Angeles competition and a Best Presentation award in the Sixth Annual Quaddy Dessert and Wine Competition. In 1998, he was named Pastry Chef of the Year by the California Restaurant Writers Association. In March 2010, his original five foot high chocolate tribute to skateboard champion Tony Hawk was selected "best design" in the San Diego Youth Services "Creations in Chocolate" benefit program. Chef Albert has provided pastry creations for the Royal Gala for Prince Andrew and the Duchess of York; the 100th Birthday of Hollywood; Kenny Roger's Special Birthday Celebration; the 100th episode of "Murder She Wrote," with Angela Lansbury; the Grammy Awards Banquet; the premier of Walt Disney's "Pocahontas;" and the Los Angeles Taste of the Nation. These are just a few of the impressive events where the attendees were fortunate enough to have sampled Chef Albert's creations.

Satisfy that chocolate craving with bite-size pieces of luscious desserts made by Chef Albert, Jill Reilly and other creative chefs and chocolatiers. Watch as a panel of 7 judges decides which entries are the best. You are the judge in the Ticket Holder's Favorite category. Take a chance on winning wonderful prizes, including overnight stays at some of the best resorts.

Where else can you eat a pasta dinner, while listening to Jack Stiteler Jazztet's live jazz music followed by decadent chocolate desserts and still not feel guilty because you know that the funds raised from your ticket will help to clothe a child in need? Tickets are $60.00 each and can be purchased by calling (858) 217-6507 or are available at Assistance League Thrift Shop, 2068 E. Valley Parkway, Escondido.
